MRS. JAMES POWERS

Well Known Groton Woman Dies After Long Illness.

Died, at the St. Luke's hospital in Aberdeen, S. D., June 3, 1921, Mrs. James Powers.

Charlotte Lottie Ricketts, was born October 20th, 1883, in Iowa. She was united in marriage to James Powers, and together they made their home in the state of her birth until 1920, when they moved to South Dakota, settling near Groton. The illness which was the cause of her ultimate death has been of long duration. She grew steadily worse, until June 3, 1921, when the end came, at the age of 37 years, seven months and thirteen days.

There remain to mourn her untimely departure, her husband; four sons, Walter, Everett, Ray and Glen; four daughters, Mrs. Vernon Feignor, of Schubert, Neb., Ruby, Eva and Grace. A little boy, born the day before her death, is also among the surviving relatives.

The funeral services were held on Monday afternoon at 2:30, in the Methodist Episcopal church, and interment made in the Groton Union cemetery. Rev. C. B. Harrold officiated at the burial services.
